Biodiversity Law Field Trip: India 2019

Checklist

• IMMEDIATELY: Register for the conference at: http://conference.bvieer.edu.in/Registration.html
  Note: There is no charge for you! You still need to be registered and must attend the conference.

• BEFORE FEBRUARY 15:
  1. Send date and time of arrival and departure to Michelle (michelle.quindeau@uni-koeln.de) She will collect all the information and forward it to Professor Kumar.
  2. Transfer excursion fee. Michelle will circulate account details to you this week.
     • Cancellation charges are 150 EUR.

• BEFORE ARRIVING IN PUNE: Do your readings. The papers will be posted on our website. (IMES and US-Recht)
The Readings
Predeparture checklist:

• Tourist visa
• Innoculations
• Medication
• Mosquito spray for body and clothing.
• Mosquito net for bed (recommended). Can be impregnated with mosquito repellant.
During Pune Field Work Workshops

• Dress casually. Temperatures will be mid 30s
• Make-up, deodorant, perfumes, perfumed soap etc are all okay.
• Sealed bottled water only and no fresh fruits or vegetables
In Bandhavgarh Tiger Reserve

- Dress:
  - casually in long sleeves and long-legs
  - in plain, solid, darker colors
  - and light layers. Temperatures will range from morning 15 to afternoon 30s

- Make-up, deodorant, perfumes, perfumed soap et cet are PROHIBITED

- Sealed bottled water only and no fresh fruits or vegetables

- Binoculars

- Cameras

- Closed walking shoes
Daily Schedule in Bandhavgarh Tiger Reserve
Return to Pune

• Part I: Post Field Work Presentations

• Part II: Ashok Kumar Indian Wildlife Law Conference